AP
2
.A332
V. 6
1891

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

PAGE

A GLANCE AT THE CONFLICT BETWEEN RELIGION AND SCIENCE. By Rev. S. Fitzsimons, ... 1

Prevalence of the affectation of scientific knowledge nowadays, 1; How positive thought has wrought injury to Faith, 2; The Church alone can check the threatened ruin, 4; Consistently, the Positivists should abolish morality, 5; Positivism, as regards Catholicity, a belligerent rather than a rebel, 6; Protestantism utterly powerless to suppress it, 7; A misleading analogy, 8; Novelty and attractiveness of the doctrines of Positivism, 11; In what consists the greatness of its strength, 13; Catholicity and Atheism the great opposing camps, 14; Catholics assured of the result of the conflict, 15; The "zeal of proselytes," 16; Positivism has brought discredit upon the beliefs of men, 17; Science utterly unable to solve the great problem, 18.

THE JOYOUS KNIGHTS; OR, FRATI GAUDENTI. By Rev. Bernard J. O'Reilly, ... 19

Dante's injustice to the Frati Gaudenti and their founders, 19; Sketch of the D'Andalò family, 20; Story of a vocation, 21; Who was Loderingo d'Andalò? 22; His mission as a peacemaker, 22; He and Catalano Catalani in Florence, 23; The causes of Dante's wrath against them, 24; They save Florence and other cities from ruin, 25; Who were the Frati Gaudenti? 26; The heretics of the thirteenth century, 27; Loderingo's purpose the highest and noblest, 28; Ladies associated with the Joyous Knights, 29; Importance and scope of their mission, 30; Justice done to their private life and public services, 31; What became of their property, 32; Present occupants of the great monastery, 33; Sketch of what is left of it, 34; Now, too, some one is needed to save Italy, 36.

THE ANTI-CATHOLIC ISSUE IN THE LATE ELECTION—THE RELATION OF CATHOLICS TO THE POLITICAL PARTIES. By John Gilmary Shea, LL.D., ... 36

Position of Catholics as regards politics, 36; The late Presidential election, 37; Catholics and the Republican party, 38; Grant and Hawkins on Catholics and the school question, 39; Richard Grant White on our public school system, 40; The Tammany organization and the Democratic party, 41; How W. R. Grace was nominated for Mayor of New York, 42; The storm of bigotry raised against him, 43; Protestant Democrats desert the party, 44; Democrats against Catholics, 45; Catholics denied offices and State grants, 46; Why intelligent Catholics have been Democrats, 47; The old anti-Catholic feeling not yet dead, 48; The course which Catholics should adopt as regards the schools, 49.

IRELAND'S GREAT GRIEVANCE—LAND TENURE IN IRELAND AND OTHER COUNTRIES. By M. F. Sullivan, ... 51

I. Actual condition of Ireland, 51; Lord Dufferin on Ireland's wrongs, 52; Mr. Cobden's evidence, 53; Present condition of the Irish peasantry, 55. II. The course which has produced this condition, 56; Evils of the law of land tenure, 57. III. Different operation of the same land laws in Ireland and England, 59; What the act of 1870 effected, 60. IV. Peasant proprietory in other countries, 61; Its working in France, 63; Stein and Hardenberg's reform in Prussia, 66; Liberation of the Russian serfs, 68; The story of British legislation in India, 69; How far peasant proprietory exists there, 73. V. Testimony of English economists concerning the Irish land system, 74; Mr. Bright's views in particular, 76; Views of Englishmen on absenteeism, 79. VI. Efforts to ameliorate Irish landlordism, 81; The Encumbered Estates (Ireland) Act, 82; Vested rights v. Peasant proprietory, 83; The aim of the act of 1870 was good, 85; Good intentions not sufficient, 86. VII. The interest of the United States in the correct and permanent settlement of the problem, 87; Concluding hints, 90.

THE EXISTENCE OF GOD DEMONSTRATED. By Rev. J. Ming, S.J., . . 92

So-called wisdom that is the perfection of folly, 92; In what way the existence of God is knowable to man, 93; The philosophy of Kant and others, 94; Innate ideas and the knowledge of God, 96; Unity of man's nature and his operations, 98; St. Thomas on the intellect's dependence on the senses, 99; Impossibility of intuitive knowledge of God, 100; Serious objections raised by the ontologists, 102; Reasons which they give for their system, 103; Their method not solid and safe, 105; In what way God is knowable to man, 106; The two ways proposed to evidence His existence, 109; In what way Sacred Scripture confirms one of these methods, 111; Philosophic theories and the true theory, 112.

PAGE

LORD BEACONSFIELD AND HIS LATEST NOVEL. By John MacCarthy, . 112

How Disraeli began his career, 112; What saved his stories, 113; Distinguishing marks of his success, 114; Literature was with him but a stepping-stone, 115; His encounter with O'Connell on first entering Parliament, 116; "Lothair" and his Catholic feelings, 116; His last premiership, 117; Events of this period, 118; The story of "Endymion," 119; Scope of its plot, 120; Its shortcomings, 124; Injustice to literary men, 126; Portraiture of a Catholic prelate, 128; Other pictures, 130; The Tory party as drawn in Disraeli's books, 131.

THE RELIGIOUS OUTLOOK IN EUROPE AT THE PRESENT DAY. By Rev. Aug. J. Thebaud, S.J., ... 132

Desperate aspect of the case, 132; The Catholic and Protestant churches in Prussia, 133; How the Kulturkampf came to be established, 134; The religious outlook in other parts of the new German Empire, 136; Recent persecution of the Church in Switzerland, 137; Condition of Catholicity in England and her European dependencies, 139; Character of the Scandinavian States, 142; The outlook in the Austrian Empire, 143; Gloominess of the present prospect in France, 145; Political and social state of Italy, 146; Spain in even a worse condition, 147; The great conflict between the Church and the Revolution, 149; Catholic belief on the issue of this conflict, 150; Firm attitude of the modern Popes, 151; Perfect coherence and unity of the Catholic leaders, 153; Perfect obedience of the bishops, 154; Actual state of the clergy, 157; Recent expulsion of the Regulars from France, 158; The most hopeful sign of the times, 160; The virtues of the clergy reflected in the people, 161; Catholic reaction in almost every country, 162.

THE FRENCH REPUBLIC—WILL IT LAST? By A. de G., ... 164

French politics during the last half century, 164; Division of parties in France, 165; M. Gambetta and the Catholic Church, 166; Dispersion of the religious orders, 167; On what the success of the Radicals depends, 169; True patriotism will save France, 171; What experience and observation teach, 172; A Radical's pronouncement, 173; What so-called enlightenment brings with it, 174; Catholicity will thrive under any form of government, 175.

CHARACTERISTICS OF PHYSICAL LIFE. By Rev. M. Ronayne, S.J., . . 193

The vital principle of growth, 193; What is life? 194; Character of the movements of plants, 195; The border line between plants and animals, 196; Explaining the principle of life, 197; Liebig's views, 198; How far art can go, 199; The laws of crystallization, 200; They have nothing to do with the growth of plants, 201; What is true of plants is truer still of animals, 202; Actions which distinguish animals, 203; Descartes's theory of animals as automata, 204; Bacon on brute life, 205; No real science in Darwinism, 206; Quatrefages on the problem at issue, 208; The phenomena of embryonic life, 209; Spontaneous generation, 210; Man the proper study of man, 211; Quality of the human soul's activity, 212; The vital energies which it imparts, 213; Unity of the human family, 214.

THE EARLIEST DISCUSSION OF THE CATHOLIC QUESTION IN NEW ENGLAND—SEGUENOT AND BURNETT, 1727. By John Gilmary Shea, LL.D., ... 216

The first printed Catholic controversy in the English colonies, 216; John Eliot among the Pawtuckets, 217; Indian troubles, 218; After King Philip's war, 219; Richard Otis's family carried off, 220; His daughter becomes a Catholic and afterwards apostatizes, thus giving rise to Father Seguenot's pamphlet, 221; English rendering of his famous letter, 221 et seq.; How the document was preserved, 226; Outcome of the controversy, 227.

THE EXISTENCE OF GOD DEMONSTRATED (SECOND ARTICLE)—BY WHAT PROOF DOES THE THEIST DEMONSTRATE THE EXISTENCE OF GOD? By Rev. J. Ming, S.J., ... 229

God as the first cause of the existence of beings, 229; St. Thomas refuting unsound reasoning, 231; Existence of God proved from the existence of contingent beings, 233; A serious objection, 234; By what kind of necessity that being exists which exists besides the contingent, 235; Inferring the existence of the infinite from that of the finite, 236; God's existence proved from the mutability of the universe, 238; Proof taken from the order of the universe, 242; The atheistic theory of chance, 244; What the supreme cause of order must be, 247; Importance of the last proof, 248.

CARLYLE'S PORTRAIT OF HIMSELF. By John MacCarthy, ... 249

A maker and a breaker of heroes, himself even included, 249; The Reminiscences published by Mr. Froude, 250; The essential part of Carlyle's life was in his works, 251; The story of his own life, 252; His father's character, 254; A characteristic of Scotch life, 256; Young Carlyle declines to enter the ministry and chooses a career, 257; How and when it ended, 258; Character of his friend Irving, 259; Scottish life half a century ago, 261; Getting tired of schoolmastering, 262; Carlyle's severe treatment of successful men, 264; Irving called to London, 265; Carlyle follows, 266; Meeting with literary men, 267; He finds adverse criticism a bitter dose, 268;

PAGE

Condition of his mind at this period, 269; He writes "Sartor Resartus," 270; Jeffrey's friendly criticism, 271; Mill's relations with Carlyle, 273; How Carlyle composed his "Frederick of Prussia," 274; In reference to Mrs. Carlyle, 275; Reminiscences of various literary characters, 277; What judgments the reader may form, 278.

THE ASSASSINATION OF ALEXANDER II. AND ITS EFFECT UPON THE FUTURE OF RUSSIA, ... 279

Nihilism in Russia, 279; Alexander II. was in dread of murder for years, 280; His violent death and his successor's prospects, 281; The Credo of Nihilism, 282; The effects of terrorism are only transient, 284; Difficulty of effecting reforms in Russia, 285; They can be brought about only by the firmest hand, 286; Lessons of the assassination, 287.

CANTERBURY. By Arthur F. Marshall, B.A., Oxon, ... 288

What Canterbury is, 288; Its present archbishop's idea of Christian unity, 289; Dean Stanley's proposal to found a new national church, 290; Can England's primate become a national pope? 291; The see of Canterbury was purely Roman for a thousand years, 292; Pope St. Agatho's declaration, 293; The Catholic archbishops never believed in a church without the Pope, 295; A connection difficult to make, 296; The difference between Catholic and Protestant archbishops, 298; What little obedience the present archbishop receives, 299.

THE SCHOLARS AND THE BIBLE. By Rev. Edward F. X. McSweeny, D.D., . 300

Peculiarity of the Anglican Church's position, 300; Relations of the Episcopal Church to the Bible, 301; The original manuscripts of the sacred books, 302; Impossible to know the truth about the Scriptures without the teaching of the Church, 304; Septuagint version of the Old Testament, 306; The Vatican Greek MSS. and the Latin Vulgate, 307; What course to follow about certain words, phrases, and verses, 308; What we are to think of the Vulgate, 310; Authority of the Church in matters concerning the Bible, 311; Relation of verbal inaccuracies to substantial integrity, 312; The forthcoming revision of King James's Bible, 314; Protestants and the Bible at the present day, 315.

THE SITUATION IN IRELAND—WHAT DOES ENGLAND MEAN? 316

The Liberal Ministry's Coercion Act of 1881, 316; The Land League agitation, 317; The House of Lords obstructing legislation, 318; How the Land League has controlled a disappointed people, 319; The folly of Secretary Forster's coercion policy, 320; The fight over coercion in Parliament, 322; Character of the so-called outrages in Ireland, 323; The Land League actually prevented an open insurrection, 324.

MADAME SWETCHINE. By Kathleen O'Meara, ... 326

The vocation of speaking in the silence, 326; How Madame Swetchine's early training prepared her for her mission, 327; The path stretched out before her as a young wife, 328; Her husband and her position at the Russian Court, 329; Her meeting with Count Joseph de Maistre, 330; The new studies which he suggested to her, 331; She leaves the Greek Church to become a Catholic, 332; From St. Petersburg to Paris, 333; Père Lacordaire's impression of her, 334; How she sacrificed her health, 336; The sympathetic social circle that surrounded her, 337; Her part in good works of various kinds, 338; Unique friendship of two great souls, 340; The evil genius of Lamennais, 341; Madame Swetchine's influence over Lacordaire's mind, 342; A painful incident interrupts the quiet tenor of her life, 343; A remarkable privilege granted her, 345; Her husband's death and the Crimean war, 346; Her death approaches, 348; Incidents of her last illness, 349; The end, 352.

THE GEORGIA NEGRO BEFORE, DURING, AND SINCE THE WAR. By R. M. Johnson, ... 353

Consequences of the abolition of slavery in the South, 353; Detailed description of a plantation household, 354; Bad features not as bad as they seemed, 357; The administrations of Presidents Lincoln and Johnson, 358; The scourge of "carpet-baggers" and "scalawags," 359; Southern outrages grossly exaggerated, 360; One great advantage which Georgia had, 361; The adhesion of the South to its former leaders is most reasonable, 363; The negro as regards religion, 364; Has enfranchisement effected a change for the better? 366; The negroes under leaders of their own race, 367.

THE SOUL AND EVOLUTION. By Professor St. George Mivart, F.R.S., etc., . 385

Growth of interest in philosophic studies, 385; Characteristics of modern philosophic progress, 387; Intellectual vision by no means free from defects, 388; What is instinct? 389; Examples in point, 390; Instinct best exemplified in insects, 392; Precision of instinctive action not absolutely invariable, 393; Unconscious intelligence as the cause of instinctive actions, 394; Exceptional phenomena, 396; Four kinds of repeated actions in man, 397; What is consciousness? 398; In what sense memory can be predicated of various kinds of actions, 399; A "reductio ad absurdum," 400; Some truth in unsound theories, 402; Use of the word "know," 403; Accounting for new species, 404; "Natural selection" discussed, 405; Objections, 408; Effects of changed conditions on organisms, 409; Evolution of new species by "unconscious intelligence," 410; The unknown power that governs evolution, 412;

PAGE

What our consciousness tells us, 413; The principle of individuation, 414; Teaching which accords with that of St. Thomas, 415; Reviewing the process of specific evolution, 416; How evolution takes place, 417; A false theory exposed by an infidel, 418; The question of individuality, 420; Objections to the Theistic conception of nature, 421; Treating them, 423; A distinction it is well to make, 425; The final refutation, 426; Misunderstandings caused by prejudice, 428; A recapitulation, 430; Judgment on the question at issue, 432.

THE CATHOLIC MOVEMENT IN WESTERN COLONIZATION—COLONIZATION IN NEBRASKA. By William J. Onahan, ... 434

"Westward the course of empire takes it way," 434; Nebraska as a field for colonization, 435; Its soil, 436; Climate and productions, 437; The question of timber and fuel, 438; A beginning made in settling Catholics there, 439; Influence of railway extension, 441; Catholics in other sections of the West, 442; Importance of Americanizing the immigrant, 443; Conclusions drawn from facts stated, 444.

RICHARD CRASHAW. By Joseph A. Nolan, M.D., Ph.D., ... 445

English literature in the first half of the seventeenth century, 445; The subject of this sketch and his training, 446; In and out of college, 447; A piece of the history of that day, 448; Crashaw's sufferings, 449; Some of his works, 450; His conversion, 451; His life on the Continent, 452; Character of his writings, 453; Extracts illustrative of his style, 454; His "hymne" on St. Theresa, 458; "The Flaming Heart" and other poems, 462; His numerous epigrams, 469; His translations, 473; His originality and power illustrated, 474; Sacred poetry, 478; Latin and Greek verses, 479; Estimate of his life and work, 480.

THE LATEST OF THE REVISIONS. By Very Rev. James A. Corcoran, D.D., . 481

Effect of the new revision on Bible worship, 481; Early Protestant Bibles, 482; The first form of Protestantism in England not Episcopalianism, 483; Why Protestants garbled the Bible, 485; Examples of their wicked designs, 486; The word "image" for instance, 487; Reckless treatment of the New Testament, 489; Perverting everything as it suited their purpose, 491; How they handled "worship" and "adoration," 493; Milton on "toleration," etc., 497; The Presbyterian Bible accomplished its mission, 498; How King James's Bible came to be made, 499; That "new version" no better than its predecessors, 501; Patching up is its main feature, 502; Ward's "Errata" of this Protestant Bible, 504; King James's version met with the fate of most compromises, 506; Significance of the revision of 1881, 507.

THE IRISH LAND BILL. By M. F. Sullivan, ... 508

England's duty towards Ireland, 508; Shortcomings of the Land Act of 1870, 509; What was hoped to be effected, 510; The bill of 1881, 511; Ireland has never had fair play, 512; Provisions for administering the new bill, 513; Criticisms on it, 515; What the Land Commission can do, 515; Mr. Bence Jones on the bill, 516; How the Presbyterians stand by it, 517; Defection of the Duke of Argyle, 518; The passage of the bill will not settle the Land Question, 519; The only true remedy, 520.

WHAT RIGHT HAS THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO MISMANAGE THE INDIANS? By John Gilmary Shea, LL.D., ... 520

Mismanagement of Indians disgraceful, 520; First European settlements on this continent, 521; How the English debased the Indians, 522; Independence bettered their condition somewhat, 523; What the Constitution of the United States says about them, 524; Events have developed more rapidly than common sense, 525; The Indian system a sink of iniquity, 526; A plan of bettering things must be discovered, 527; The history of our Indian department is a history of sectarian intrigues and violence, 528; Catholic Indians, 529; Fanatic violence against Catholics, 530; Flinging mud upon Catholics, 532; The Catholic Indian Bureau, 533; The agency system all wrong, 534; The case of the Poncas and others, 535; Carl Schurz on the Indians, 536; What ought to be done with the Indians, 538, How reform can be effected, 539; Educate them, 541.

BIOLOGY; OR, THE PRINCIPLE OF LIFE. By Rev. Thomas Hughes, S.J., . 542

What is man? 542; The philosophy of human life, 543; Form and matter of argumentation on the subject, 544; A theory making the science of ethics impossible, 545; Life and non-life, 546; St. Thomas and others discuss the subject, 549; Difference of principle between the living and the non-living, 550; Principle of causation, 553; The definition of life, 555; The order of facts proving the case, 557; Repeating the definition of life in a double form, 558; Recapitulation, 559.

FREEMASONRY. By Rev. Aug. J. Thebaud, S.J., ... 577

The object of Freemasonry cannot be merely benevolence, 577; Father Deschamps' great work on the subject, 578; What Freemasonry has had to do with the Revolution, 579; Intrinsic and extrinsic proofs, 580; Accounting for the spread of Freemasonry in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, 582; Connection with Protestantism, 583; The French Revolution, 585; Relation of Masonry to the French Parliaments, 587; The Freemasons conspired to destroy the Jesuits, 589; Abuses of the old régime in France, 590; They could not have been the sole cause of the Revolution, 591; The governments which sprang out of it, 592; Secret societies after the Restoration, 593; Mazzini and the "Carbonara," 594; Dissensions between Masonic factions, 595; Causes of the Revolutions of 1848, 596; Napoleon III. and secret societies, 598; The modern struggle over education, 600; The Kulturkampf the most perfect example of its class, 601; The "Internationale" and Nihilism, 602; Freemasonry in England and the United States, 604; There is a positive connection between the British Lodges and those of the Continent, 607.

PAGE

SOME OF THE ASPECTS OF THE WORK OF ENGLISH CONVERTS. By Arthur F. Marshall, B.A., Oxon., ... 609

How to test the fruits of a religious movement, 609; The noble work done by the little army of converts, 610; Not their fault if England remains Protestant, 611; A national conversion out of the question, 613; Influence that is keenly felt, 614; The different directions in which the converts have exercised influence, 615; The estimate made here a purely natural one, 616.

THE SPIRIT-WORLD. By Rev. J. F. X. Hæffer, S.J., ... 617

Father Mazzella's Treatise on the Angels, 617; The primal tradition preserved in its purity only by the Church, 618; Intrusion of the Spirit-World into our every-day life, 619; The doctrines of the Church concerning its existence and nature, 620; Superiority of the Angels over men, 621; Framework of that extraordinary society, 622; Duration of the trial to which God has subjected the Angels, 624; The fallen Angels and the destroying spirits, 625; Where Catholic theologians draw the line in spirit-rapping, 626; Limits of the spirit's knowledge concerning man, 627; "How can the Angels talk if they have no tongues?" 629; Sublimity of the Angels' language, 630; Guardian Angels, 632; The attitude which man generally assumes towards the Spirit-World, 633.

CATHOLICITY IN KENTUCKY—GRACE NEWTON SIMPSON. By B. J. Webb, . 635

Influence of women on the development of Catholicity in Kentucky, 635; Family and early life of the subject of the present sketch, 636; A typical discussion, 637; Anecdotes of Mrs. Simpson, 638; Another discussion, 639; Mrs. Simpson and the See of Bardstown, 641; The last years of her life, 642.

THE EXISTENCE OF GOD DEMONSTRATED (THIRD ARTICLE). By Rev. J. Ming, S.J., ... 643

How far we know the things of this world, 643; The metaphysical essences are of necessity something real, 644; How the infinite can be the foundation and last reason of the finite, 646; God's existence shown from the fact that He is the author and the end of the moral order, 647; God's existence our supreme good, 650; Unshaken and universal conviction of all nations as to the existence of God, 652; Tracing this belief back to its origin, 655; God's existence traced back to rational nature struck by the evidence of truth, 656; Can man's belief in God depend solely on education? 657; Answering an objection arising from the necessity of the cognition of God's existence, 659; The theistic conception of God as opposed to other ideas of Him, 661; Absurdity of pantheism and polytheism, 663; Summing up all previous arguments, 666.

THE REVIVAL OF MANUFACTURES IN IRELAND. By M. F. Sullivan, . . 668

How far Gladstone's new Land Bill is a remedy for Ireland's ills, 668; The direction of the public attention towards manufactures natural, 669; The industrial question in English legislation for Ireland, 670; What followed the ruin of Irish industries, 672; "The commercial restraints of Ireland considered," 673; Difficulty of writing upon Irish subjects, 674; Summary of the enactments against Irish industries, 675; What the Irish Parliament had to do with them, 676; How Ireland was taxed for the support of English wars, 677; The economic principle of commercial exchange, 678; The essentials of exchange are not in the possession of Ireland, 680; The outlook for a resuscitation of manufactures in Ireland, 681.

THE LESSON OF PRESIDENT GARFIELD'S ASSASSINATION. By John Gilmary Shea, LL.D., ... 683

The promises and hopes of four years cut short by the assassin Guiteau, 683; Garfield's public character, 684; Mr. Arthur's position, 685; The rush for office, 685; Religion and President Garfield's deathbed, 686; Dishonesty characteristic of our age, 687; Appalling increase of crime at present, 688; Guiteau's depravity and what led to his crime, 689; The public prayers for the President, 690.

AN AMERICAN CATHOLIC DRAMATIST. By Eugene L. Didier, ... 691

Who George H. Miles was, and how he commenced his career, 691; Illustrations of his style taken from "Mohammed the Prophet," 692; The drama of Mohammed is followed by one on De Soto, 693; His "Mary's Birthday," 696; His sparkling comedy of "Señor Valiente," 697; Remarks on his tragedy of "Cromwell," 701; Extracts from this composition, 702; Its last act, 706; The high place won by Miles in American dramatic literature, 708.

PAGE

THE IMPOSSIBILITIES OF UNBELIEF. By A. de G., ... 709

Present aspect of the intellectual world, 709; Cause of the prevalence of unbelief, 710; Formidable appearance presented by atheism, 711; What unbelief means, 712; What we learn by examining the various systems of modern thought, 713; The existence of evil as a basis of unbelief, 714; The strength of Dr Brownson's method of refuting atheism, 715; Accounting for the existence of evil, 716; Consequences of original sin, 717; What follows from the denial of the Incarnation, 720; Pride is the great enemy of Christianity, 721; Frederick Harrison on the situation, 722; How the existence of a better world beyond the grave is proven, 725; If we take advice in temporal, why not in eternal affairs? 726.

RIGHT AND WRONG: THEIR RELATION TO MAN'S ULTIMATE END; IS THE NORMA OF MORALITY ABSOLUTE OR RELATIVE? By James A. Cain, 728

The end of man's existence—In what class of his actions morality is concerned, 728; The nature of moral action and the norma of conduct, 730; Purposeless actions not here included, 731; How we may speak of universal conduct, 732; The end of human actions, 733; Character of the distinction between right and wrong, 735; Examining a current theory on the last motives of moral actions, 736; Aristotle on perfect human happiness, 737; St. Thomas also understood it thus, 738; The tendency of Mr. Spencer's school to reduce the moral order to the physical, 740; Whence arises the obligation to observe the distinction between right and wrong, 741; Is the motive for virtue an enlightened self-interest? 742; What right really is, 743; Why happiness is sought, 744.

GLADSTONE'S LATEST BLUNDER. By George D. Wolff, ... 746

The sensation caused by Mr. Parnell's arrest, 746; Commendable attitude of the people of Ireland under this provocation, 747; Mr. Gladstone has blundered criminally, 748; What a true statesman would have done, 749; Weak points of Mr. Gladstone's present position, 750; The suppression of the Land League may drive the people into secret societies, 751.

BOOK NOTICES.

Bastian's The Brain as an Organ of Mind... .. 378
Brunton's The Bible and Science..... 755

Carlyle's Essays..... 760
Chatard's (Bishop) Christian Truths..... 576
Chinese Immigration (Seward's)..... 375
Christ in His Church..... 764
Christian Schools and Scholars (Drane's)..... 567
Coleridge's Life of Mother Frances Mary Teresa Ball..... 756
Cook's (Rev. Joseph) Boston Monday Lectures, 1880–1881..... 564
Correspondence between Prince Talleyrand and Louis XVIII..... 574

Decheverens' (Father M., S.J.) Zodiacal Light 185
Dominican Hymn Book..... 192
Duffy's (Sir C. Gavan) Young Ireland..... 178

English Poets (Ward's)..... 381

Gleeson's The Trials of the Church..... 368
Graded Catholic Educational Series..... 763
Graduale de Tempore..... 384

Harper's Metaphysics of the School..... 560
Herbert Spencer's Ceremonial Institutions... 181
Hergenroether's History of Devotion to the B. V. M..... 187

Illustrated Catholic Family Annual for 1882. 764
Institutiones Philosophiæ Naturalis (Pesch's) 758

Jenkins's Students' Handbook of Literature.. 192

Lambing's History of the Church in Pittsburgh Diocese..... 176
Lambert's Thesaurus Biblicus 380
Longfellow Birthday Book, The..... 384

Maidens of Hallowed Names..... 763
Manual for Communion..... 192
Mazzella's De Religione et Ecclesia..... 384
Mermillod's Mission of Woman..... 192

O'Keefe's Moral Discourses..... 383
Oriental and Biblical Journal..... 192

Phelps's Theory of Preaching..... 752
Philosophia Lacensis..... 758
Potter's The Spoken Word..... 191
Prachensky's The Church and the Parables.. 762
Primitive Superstitions, The Origin of..... 764

Rituale Romanum Pauli V..... 764
Ryan's (Bishop) Claims of a P. E. Bishop, etc. 189

Schmitt's Instructions for First Communicants..... 382
Segneri's Practice of Interior Recollection with God..... 384
Seventy-three Catholic Tracts on Various Subjects 383
Sutcliffe's Prove all Things, etc..... 575

Thebaud's The Church and the Moral World 190
The Home Rule Candidate and other Stories 384
The Will of God 384

Ullathorne's The Endowments of Man..... 372
Wetzer und Welte's Kirchenlexicon..... 382
Woolsey's Communism and Socialism..... 183